[Palestinian children abused in Israeli detention:

NGO](<https://www.aljazeera.com/news/2023/7/10/palestinian-children-abused-in-israeli-detention-ngo>)

Some of the abuses are sexual in nature, in addition to being beaten, handcuffed and blindfolded, a report says. Palestinian minors arrested by Israeli forces face immense emotional and physical abuse, according to the rights group Save the Children, which has revealed the tragedy minors go through as detainees in a new report. In the report published on Monday, the group said some of the former child detainees it spoke to reported violence of a sexual nature, while many others were beaten, handcuffed and blindfolded in small cages in detention centres and upon being moved between centres.

military](<https://www.savethechildren.net/news/stripped-beaten-and-blindfolded-new-research-reveals-ongoing-violence-and-abuse-palestinian>)

Ramallah, 10 July – Palestinian children in the Israel military detention system face physical and emotional abuse, with four out of five (86%) of them being beaten, and 69% strip-searched, according to new research by Save the Children. Nearly half (42%) are injured at the point of arrest, including gunshot wounds and broken bones. Some report violence of a sexual nature and some are transferred to court or between detention centres in small cages, the child rights organisation said.

Injustice: Palestinian children's experience of the Israeli military detention system

Co-authored by Emily May and Claire Nicoll, Save the Children International, July 2023

Here's an earlier study by the same organization:

Defenceless: The Impact of Israeli Military Detention on Palestinian Children

Save the Children surveyed more than 470 children across the West Bank, to hear about their experience of detention and to understand its resounding impact on their lives after release. The children echoed findings by other human rights organisations and painted a similarly bleak picture of the system. A majority reported they had endured a distressing or violent arrest or detention, in most cases at night; a coercive interrogation environment; physical and emotional abuse in detention; and a denial of essential services including an adequate education – all of which constitute a breach of their rights enshrined in international law. Save the Children's research also reveals the lasting impacts of detention on children's lives. As a result of the children's and their families' willingness to share their experiences and challenges after release, it is clear from their testimony that military detention has profound and far-reaching repercussions on children's lives. This manifests as anxiety, depression, behavioural changes, eating and sleeping disorders, and physical symptoms including chest pains, exhaustion, and numbness.

<https://qudsnen.co/?p=28651&amp;=1>

A report titled "Classified Docs Reveal Massacres of Palestinians in '48 --and What Israeli Leaders Knew" exposes discussions the Israeli government had on the massacres committed in 1948

THE MASSACRES REVEALED

"OPERATION YOAV" AND "OPERATION HIRAM"

Israeli soldiers assaulted dozens of Palestinian villages; of the 120,000 Palestinians that used to dwell in the area, only 30,000 remained.

"OPERATION DANI"

2 elderly men and a woman in the village of Al-Burj were shot dead; their bodies were then burned and the house was torched. A fourth man was later killed with 4 bullets in the head

IRGUN TERRORIST GROUP EXPOSED

A member of the Provisional State Council (now known as the Knesset) sought an explanation regarding acts carried out by members of the Jewish terrorist group, Irgun.

IRGUN TERRORIST ACTS:

They took as captives peaceful residents, among which were women and children, ordered them to dig a pit, pushed them into it with long French bayonets, and shot them one by one until they were all murdered.

A girl of about 19-20 was raped by men from Altalena (an Irgun unit); afterward she was stabbed with a bayonet and a wooden stick was thrust into her body.

WHAT HAPPENED IN THE 1948 NAKBA?

In 1948, the Israeli occupation, with the help of British forces, carried out ethnic cleansing and expelled the largest part of the Palestinian people from their homes.

More than 15,000 Palestinians were martyred.

More than 800,000 out of 1.4 million Palestinians were displaced from their land.

There's nothing like killing children for bringing together hearts and minds. For the past 18 weeks, Israelis have been fighting each other, unable to find anything to bring us closer together. Then came the killing of the children in the Gaza Strip and proved that we're brothers, after all.

Debunking a common Zionist argument that denies Israeli apartheid; interestingly revealing how similar both apartheid regimes were in their talking points

Myth ✘

Israel is not Apartheid since it has Arab lawyers

Fact ✔

- Apartheid in international laws is defined wrt Rome statute of International criminal court, that no where says having some people from oppressed minority at high positions nullifies apartheid.
- Intent to dominate, inhumane acts and systemic oppression are three criteria that need to be fulfilled to classify as apartheid, and Israel satisfies it both in Occupied territories and within Israel
- Mandella was also a Black Lawyer in Apartheid South Africa, but it didnt nullified apartheid there.
- White Africaans in Apatheid South Africa used to make same apologetic arguments for apartheid, they called it "Black blessings" in South Africa.

Apologists often claim it is a lie that Zionists came with any ill intentions to Palestine, and that any Zionist violence was a reaction to Palestinian "terrorism", which was definitely not a reaction to the hordes who had come with the intention to remove the natives. And yet:
A Historical Survey of Proposals to Transfer Arabs from Palestine, 1895-1947.

In this work Rabbi Dr. Chaim Simons provides examples of the writings and recorded words of important Zionist leaders including Theodore Herzl, David Ben-Gurion, Chaim Weizmann, Vladimir Jabotinsky, Baron Edmund de Rothschild and Moshe Shertok, demonstrating that the concept of 'transfer' [of the native arabs] was present from the earliest days of Zionism, that it was viewed as being a crucial action, and concludes that 'transfer' was in fact Zionist policy. Simons concludes further that the Zionist leadership has no viable alternative.

Since we had achieved our major objective, knocking out the top Hamas commander Jabri right at the start of the campaign, there was no point in continuing. But ending these kinds of operations is much harder than starting them. The public invariably expects the government to continue the battle and “flatten Gaza,” believing that with enough punishment the Hamas regime would collapse.

Aside from this widespread misery, there was an even bigger issue involved. Israel’s existence as a Jewish and democratic state was predicated on the maintenance of a solid Jewish majority. By 2013 some forty thousand illegal migrants had entered the country. If this flow continued to grow, as it showed every sign of doing, the whole foundation of the state would be undermined.

This challenge did not come only from Africa. Since 2014, some twenty thousand illegal job migrants, also with no connection to Israel or Judaism, had come from Eastern Europe, and we made every effort to return them to their home countries.

If the rate of migration continued to grow we’d have in a short order 100,000 to 200,000 migrants a year. Within a decade Israel could be overwhelmed with well over a million illegal migrants total, equivalent to some 40 million in the United States on a relative population basis. Israel’s Jewish majority could disappear and Israel’s future as a democratic Jewish state with it.

It was a reminder that building the fence was not only vital to stopping illegal job migrants. It would also block the growing number of terrorists coming in from the Sinai.

Less than two years after the beginning of its construction, the fence was complete.

Like the Great Wall of China that inspired it, it went up and down gullies and chasms and closed the border.

The rate of illegal infiltration into Israel went down to zero!

Israel was thus the first Western country to effectively seal its borders.

the French government organized on the streets of the capital. That evening I addressed a packed Jewish audience in the Grand Synagogue of Paris.

“Brothers and sisters, Jews of France,” I said. “You have the full right to live in safety and tranquility as citizens with equal rights wherever you wish, including here in France. But Jews of our time have been blessed with another right that did not exist for previous generations: the right to join their Jewish brothers and sisters in our historic homeland, the Land of Israel; the right to live in our free country, the one and only Jewish state; the right to stand tall and proud at the walls of Zion, our eternal capital of Jerusalem.

“Any Jew who wishes to immigrate to Israel will be welcomed with open arms and warm hearts. They will not arrive in a foreign land but in the land of our forefathers. God willing, they will come, and many of you will come to our homeland.”<sup>6</sup>

How is it "unbiased" for the Secretary-General of the United Nations to assure a country's prime minister that the UN reports will be in his country's favor?

My second course of action was to speak confidentially to Ban Ki-moon, the secretary-general of the United Nations. Meeting in his office at UN headquarters in New York, he sought to reassure me.

“Prime Minister,” he said, “I ask you to trust me. I will appoint a person of impartial integrity to lead our inquiry.”

“When it comes to Israel at the UN, that will be a refreshing first,” I answered.

I raised the recently issued Goldstone Report, a product of the highly biased and misnamed UN Human Rights Council, 70 percent of whose resolutions were directed against Israel.<sup>3</sup> That report had accused Israel of war crimes for defending itself against the targeting of civilians by Hamas rockets fired from Gaza.

“This is not the Human Rights Council,” Ban Ki-moon said. “I will personally choose the commission head and you will not be disappointed with my choice.”

He was true to his word. He appointed the former prime minister of New Zealand, Geoffrey Palmer, who also served as a minister of justice, to head up the commission.

The Palmer Report surprised many. Mostly fair and accurate, it too backed the legality of Israel's right to blockade Gaza and argued that it used force for self-defense. But it also added that this force was excessive and that the lives lost were “unacceptable.”

For a UN commission, that was as good as we could get. The Palmer Report went a long way to bury the Mavi Marmara affair. But we were not out of the woods yet. International law enabled the Turkish government and Turkish citizens to get warrants of arrest for our soldiers and commanders in many countries.

To resolve that, I had to cut a financial remuneration deal with Erdogan. This was achieved a few years later, with the help of President Obama, at the time a close friend of the Turkish president.

I believe that if Israel continues like this, it will cease to be a Jewish nation.

There are loads of Christian and Muslim countries, but only one Jewish one. We have to be careful because all of these new people will fall in love, marry here, and there will be more citizens who are not Jewish.

We know that if they are here, we will intermarry like in all other countries, and we will be at risk.

I have nothing against them and wish them all well, but whether they should come to Israel, is questionable.

JERUSALEM – A Jewish rabbi has issued a book giving Jews permission to murder non-Jews, including babies and children, who may pose an actual or potential threat to Jews or Israel. "It is permissible to kill the Righteous among non-Jews even if they are not responsible for the threatening situation," Rabbi Yitzhak Shapiro, who heads the Od Yosef Chai Yeshiva in the Yitzhar settlement in the occupied West Bank, wrote in his book "The King's Torah."

He argues that goyim (a derogatory epithet for non-Jews) may be killed if they threaten Israel.

"If we kill a Gentile who has sinned or has violated one of the seven commandments – because we care about the commandments – there is nothing wrong with the murder."

Proof arabs have right to the land

“The conflict based on a lie” by GDF

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=dy56Q1a0Flc>

The Canaanites are the earliest known urban people to live there(Palestine region), building city-states such as Jericho. Israelites and Philistines later occupied the area. During the reign of King David of Israel (c. 1000 BCE), the Philistines and Canaanites were defeated and Jews controlled the region. After the death of King David’s son, King Solomon, the kingdom split, but Jews continued to rule. Hundreds of years later, the Assyrian and Babylonian Empires conquered the Israelites. The Babylonians destroyed the Jewish city of Jerusalem and exiled the Jews. When Babylonia fell to the Persians, the Jews returned and rebuilt the city and the temple. Alexander the Great brought the region under Greek control, but the Jews revolted and gained independence. In 63 BCE, Rome gained control of the region, calling it Judea. Responding to Jewish resistance, the Romans sacked Jerusalem, destroyed the second Jewish temple, and expelled many of the Jews. https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Origin\_of\_the\_Palestinians

Following the Roman conquest of the region, Judea remained under Roman control for several centuries. The Jewish population faced various challenges, including cultural and religious tensions with the ruling Roman authorities. In 70 CE, the Romans once again sacked Jerusalem, destroying the Second Jewish Temple during the First Jewish-Roman War. This event, known as the Siege of Jerusalem, resulted in a significant loss for the Jewish population and further dispersion throughout the region. Over the centuries, the region experienced successive waves of foreign conquest and occupation. The Byzantine Empire controlled the area until the 7th century when it fell to the Arab-Islamic conquests. The Arab Muslims established control over the region, introducing Islam as a dominant religion.

The Crusades, a series of military campaigns initiated by European Christian powers in the 11th-13th centuries, sought to reclaim Jerusalem and other holy sites in the region. These periods of conflict and occupation resulted in shifting control between Christian Crusaders and Muslim forces. In the 16th century, the region came under the control of the Ottoman Empire, which ruled until the end of World War I. During this period, the local population, including Jews, Christians, and Muslims, lived under Ottoman rule. Following the collapse of the Ottoman Empire, the League of Nations granted Britain a mandate to administer Palestine in 1920. The mandate period was marked by tensions between Jewish and Arab communities, as Jewish immigration increased and the Zionist movement sought to establish a Jewish homeland.

After World War II and the Holocaust, international support grew for the establishment of a Jewish state. In 1947, the United Nations proposed a partition plan to divide Palestine into separate Jewish and Arab states. The plan was accepted by Jewish leaders but rejected by Arab leaders, leading to conflict. The State of Israel was officially declared on May 14, 1948, following the end of the British mandate. The declaration of independence was followed by a war between Israel and neighboring Arab states, known as the 1948 Arab-Israeli War. Since then, the region has witnessed numerous conflicts, including the Suez Crisis in 1956, the Six-Day War in 1967, the Yom Kippur War in 1973, and ongoing tensions and conflicts between Israel and its Arab neighbors, as well as the Israeli-Palestinian conflict.

The Nakba occurred immediately following the declaration of the State of Israel on May 14, 1948.

(<https://www.aljazeera.com/news/2022/5/15/nakba-mapping-palestinian-villages-destroyed-by-israel-in-1948>) Following the declaration, hostilities escalated between Jewish and Arab communities in the region. The Arab-Israeli War, involving military forces from neighboring Arab countries and local militias, began shortly after the establishment of Israel. During this period, a significant number of Palestinian Arabs fled or were forcibly displaced from their homes. The causes of displacement during the Nakba were multifaceted and included factors such as military actions, fear, and the breakdown of social and political structures. Many Palestinians left their homes due to violence, the advance of Israeli forces, or in response to calls from Arab leaders to evacuate temporarily until victory in the war was achieved. The displacement resulted in a large-scale refugee crisis, with Palestinians seeking refuge in nearby Arab countries and within the region. The United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East (UNRWA) estimates that hundreds of thousands of Palestinians were displaced during the Nakba. The first Arab-Israeli war, also known as the 1948 Arab-Israeli War or the War of Independence, began on May 15, 1948. It occurred immediately following the declaration of the State of Israel on that same day. The conflict involved a coalition of Arab states, including Egypt, Jordan, Iraq, Syria, and Lebanon, who opposed the establishment of Israel. (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/1948\_Arab-Israeli\_War) The UN on November 29, 1947, voted to partition Palestine into Jewish and Arab states, which was again opposed by the Arabs.

However, the declaration of the state of Israel on May 14, 1948, fulfilled the Zionist's dream of a Jewish homeland. (<https://www.jagranjosh.com/current-affairs/why-was-israel-created-as-a-jewish-state-in-1948-all-you-need-to-know-1621517390-1>)

The aftermath of the Holocaust witnessed a surge of Jewish survivors seeking refuge in Palestine. However, strict restrictions on Jewish immigration imposed by the British Mandate led to a significant number of Jewish individuals entering Palestine through illegal means. Desperation and the urgent need for a safe haven drove Holocaust survivors to embark on perilous journeys, often aboard overcrowded ships, evading British patrols. The Exodus 1947, a notable example, highlighted the challenges faced by illegal Jewish immigrants. The illegal immigration of Jewish individuals into Palestine had significant and complex consequences for the region. One of the major issues was the disruption of the demographic balance between Jewish and Arab communities. The influx of Jewish immigrants, both legal and illegal, altered the population dynamics and fueled tensions between the two groups. This demographic shift contributed to conflicts over land, resources, and political control, further exacerbating the Arab-Israeli conflict. Moreover, the establishment of Jewish settlements on land acquired through illegal immigration has been a major source of contention, seen as a violation of international law and a hindrance to peace negotiations. ## “Why is the skin cancer rate so high in Israel?”

By IChori Team © 28 March

According to the Israel Cancer Association, Israel has one of the highest rates of skin cancer in the world. In Israel, there were 3,631 skin cancer patients by the end of 2000, with roughly 200 people dying each year.

Israel has a high risk of skin cancer due to its hot environment, which is ideal for persons with dark skin. The bulk of Israelis are Europeans who do not belong in that region of the world; their genetics are not adapted to living in the Middle East for long periods at a time. Israelis live in one of the hottest parts of the Middle East, but they dress like Westerners.

Israelis Are Not 'Indigenous' (and other ridiculous pro-Israel arguments)

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FhIUFPpXIVo>

- Israelis are not 'Indigenous', and claims otherwise are based on an intentional obfuscation of what the term means.
- These sorts of pro-Israel arguments in general rely on little more than appeals to biological ancestry and ancient history; justifications which are considered jokes in every other analogous case, and which are not even put into practice by the Israeli state itself.
- Like all Israeli propaganda, all of this is dishonest garbage that even its proponents do not take seriously. The goal is not to make coherent arguments, it's to muddy the waters and cause confusion to draw attention away from ongoing Israeli colonialism.

When the Israeli Hasbara Minister let the cat out of the bag...

Imagine a gang of thieves invading a house, expelling the family that legally lived there, and then asking the neighbours to accept it as the most worthy bunch of thieves in the universe because it is innovative and it invented Waze and cherry tomatoes and it does great pride parades in the stolen living room.

No neighbour will sympathise with this group of thieves, no matter how successful they may be.

This is exactly where Israeli hasbara has failed time and time again – when there is an inherent moral failure in our very existence on this land, then it really doesn't matter how successful we are.

Israel attacking allies

Quote: Israeli Prime Minister Netanyahu, 1990:

Take a look at this statement from Israeli prime minister Benjamin Netanyahu, recorded during a 1990 meeting between him and an Israeli spy assigned to steal America's secrets, and finish setting the groundwork for the destruction of America.

I suggest you carefully read what Netanyahu said here, and ask yourself, DID THIS HAPPEN TO AMERICA? Obviously the answer is yes.

Then I would like you to think about what Netanyahu said here, and ask yourself - Did all of this happen as coincidence, or did the Jewish community successfully plot and implement the destruction of America?

"If we get caught they will just replace us with persons of the same cloth. So it does not matter what you do, America is a golden calf and we will suck it dry, chop it up, and sell it off piece by piece until there is nothing left but the world's biggest welfare state that we will create and control. Why? Because it is the will of God and America is big enough to take the hit so we can do it again and again and again. This is what we do to countries that we hate. We destroy them very slowly and make them suffer for refusing to be our slaves."

In 2003, in an analysis of the Bush regime's eagerness to invade Iraq, Patrick J. Buchanan reviewed the history of the USA/Israel relationship. Has anything really changed since then?

*Since the time of Ben Gurion, the behavior of the Israeli regime has been Jekyll and Hyde. In the 1950s, its intelligence service, the Mossad, had agents in Egypt blow up U.S. installations to make it appear the work of Cairo, to destroy U.S. relations with the new Nasser government. During the Six Day War, Israel ordered repeated attacks on the undefended USS Liberty that killed 34 American sailors and wounded 171 and included the machine-gunning of life rafts. This massacre was neither investigated nor punished by the U.S. government in an act of national cravenness.

Though we have given Israel $20,000 for every Jewish citizen, Israel refuses to stop building the settlements that are the cause of the Palestinian intifada. Likud has dragged our good name through the mud and blood of Ramallah, ignored Bush's requests to restrain itself, and sold U.S. weapons technology to China, including the Patriot, the Phoenix air-to-air missile, and the Lavi fighter, which is based on F-16 technology. Only direct U.S. intervention blocked Israel's sale of our AWACS system.

Israel suborned Jonathan Pollard to loot our secrets and refuses to return the documents, which would establish whether or not they were sold to Moscow. When Clinton tried to broker an agreement at Wye Plantation between Israel and Arafat, Bibi Netanyahu attempted to extort, as his price for signing, release of Pollard, so he could take this treasonous snake back to Israel as a national hero.*

If Jews amount to roughly 2% of the U.S. population, would it be odd for a media organization to have a Jewish Chairman, Vice-Chairman, Chairman Emeritus, Chief Executive Officer, Chief Research Officer, President of News, President of Television, President of Sports, and President of Films, as well as a Chief National Correspondent, White House Correspondent, Washington Correspondent, and a majority of Correspondents and Executive Vice Presidents who are all Jewish?

It's almost as if...

The Lavon Affair

In 1954 Israeli agents recruit Egyptian citizens of Jewish descent to bomb Western targets in Egypt, and plant evidence to frame Arabs, in an apparent attempt to upset American/Egyptian relations. Israeli defence minister, Ashkenazi Jew, Pinhas Lavon is eventually removed from office, though many think real responsibility lies with David Ben-Gurion.

This is the first known use of Jews who look like Arabs, being used by the Jews to carry out terrorist attacks that they then blame on the Arabs, and is an example of how their secret service motto -

"By Way of Deception, Thou Shalt Do War," works in practice.

Opinion | Zionism cannot produce a just peace. Only external pressure can end the Israeli apartheid.

By Raphael Mimoun

May 20, 2021 at 5:37 p.m. EDT

My Jewish community was fed a historical narrative divorced from reality: That Palestine was a largely uninhabited piece of desert before we settled it. That during what we call Israel's War of Independence, Palestinians were not expelled by Jewish militias but instead willingly left their homes to make room for Arab armies to "push all the Jews into the sea, dead or alive." That Arab leaders were never interested in compromising, turning down peace offers from Israel and the United States one after the other. The list goes on.

Those assertions have long been debunked — for example, by a former Israeli prime minister recounting his role in expelling Palestinians during the 1948 war, and by historians showing that most of the land in Palestine was cultivated by Arab farmers before Zionist migration. But when your entire world buys into that narrative — friends and family, the media you consume, the organizations you join and, if you grow up in Israel, your educational system — that is your reality. It's a false one, disconnected from historical facts, but it is yours.

Scholarly analysis by Professor Nurit Peled-Elhanan of Hebrew University, sums up essence of Israel education system quite well.

as persecution and victimhood, and eternal 'truths' about the non-Jews, who are in this case the 'Arabs.' Israeli school books – in defiance of factual evidence – still present the Palestinians as the 'thugs' and the Israelis as the victims and as the protectors of the land. The centuries-old Jewish saying repeated every Passover: 'Every generation they rise to exterminate us' – reminding one of the constant persecution of the Jews, is still presented in current Israeli school books, as in the political discourse, as an actual fact of the present, ignoring the significant changes in this reality, such as the fact that Israel is a strong state, with unequal military force, that dominates 4.5 million Palestinian Arabs, most of whom are refugees, children or grandchildren of refugees, who have no military force and no civil or human rights.

Historian Confino (2007a) explains the raison d'être of this narrative:

The collective memory of victimhood has become central in the explanation the Israeli society gives itself regarding its actions in the [occupied] territories. [...] The memory of the Holocaust has become more central as the occupation has become more cruel [...].

Since the 1970s, in Israel, as in the world in general, there has been a change in the memory of the Shoah; [...] it emphasizes victimhood much more than heroism. At the same time the occupation has become harsher and less heroic [for] there is nothing heroic in breaking into a home at night when the babies cry, in detaining a pregnant woman at the checkpoint or in forcing a whole population under curfew so that the children of Israel can celebrate their holiday of freedom (Passover).

The Satmar Rebbe, Maimonides, Rashi & others believed:

- 1) Occupying Palestine is an obstacle to the coming of the Messiah
- 2) Jews should be stateless for redemption to occur

Rabbi Yoel Teitelbaum

So we see that before the coming of moshiach that lowly state will disappear, since his coming is impossible otherwise, and the state is delaying the true redemption. And a similar thing is explicit in the words of the Rambam in Igeres Teiman.<sup>77</sup> But we need Heavenly mercy so that that state should come to an end only through power from above, from Hashem, not through the nations, because if it happens through the nations, Heaven forbid, it would obviously be a tremendous danger to the Jewish people. May Hashem have mercy on us and all of His people Israel.<sup>78</sup>

In any case, all those who derive benefit from and take pride in that state are taking pride in the delaying of moshiach's coming. Woe to that embarrassment and humiliation!<sup>79</sup> @JudaismUnveiled

Sefer VaYoel Moshe, Hakdama (Introduction)

When the gentiles think that this people will never have their own government and state, and they will never be redeemed from their exile, and all the sages of the world say this unanimously, including the sorcerers and those who understand the powers, God will annul their thoughts and their false logic, and then the Messiah will be revealed. This is what Isaiah (44:25-26) said: "Who frustrates the signs of imposters, and diviners He makes mad; He turns the wise backwards and makes their knowledge foolish. He fulfills the word of His servant, and the counsel of His messenger He completes, Who says of Jerusalem, 'It shall be settled,' and of the cities of Judah, 'They shall be built, and its ruins I will erect.'" That is the correct belief that Jews should hold.

On July 26, 2021, the Anti-Defamation League (ADL) announced a new partnership initiative with PayPal to fight extremism and hate through means of disrupting the use of financial platforms by political extremists.

The Anti-Defamation League is an international Jewish non-governmental organization based in the United States. It was founded in 1913 by Sigmund Livingston, due to rising anti-semitism in America. The most significant event that sparked the organization into action was the trial of Leo Frank, which was surrounded by a surge of anti-semitism against the defendant.

Leo Frank was a Jewish factory superintendent who was convicted in 1913 of the rape and murder of 13-year-old female employee Mary Phagan, in Atlanta, Georgia. He claimed innocence; the trial defense claimed Jim Conley, a Black janitor working at the factory, was the actual perpetrator. The trial largely relied Conley's testimony that he had been an accomplice in the event, but was not guilty of committing the crime against Mary Phagan.

Leo Frank

Jim Conley

In 1915, the Governor of Georgia commuted Frank's sentence from capital punishment to life imprisonment. Soon after, a group of armed men took unlawful vengeance kidnapping Frank from prison and subsequently lynching him. The new governor vowed to punish the lynchers, but nobody was charged.

In 1986, at the ADL's urging, Frank was posthumously pardoned by the state of Georgia, but not officially absolved of the crime. The action also received support and encouragement from the American Jewish Committee and the Atlanta Jewish Federation. According to the New York Times, they argued that they should not have to prove Frank's innocence; only that he was denied justice.

The current CEO and leader of the ADL is Jonathan Greenblatt, an entrepreneur, corporate executive, and former White House official under Obama. He assumed his current role in 2015, succeeding Abraham Foxman, who had directed the organization since 1987.

Baghdadi 'Mossad trained'

WASHINGTON: The former employee at US National Security Agency (NSA), Edward Snowden, has revealed that the British and American intelligence and the Mossad worked together to create the Islamic State of Iraq and Syria (ISIS).

Snowden said intelligence services of three countries created a terrorist organisation that is able to attract all extremists of the world to one place, using a strategy called "the hornet's nest".

NSA documents refer to recent implementation of the hornet's nest to protect the Zionist entity by creating religious and Islamic slogans.

According to documents released by Snowden, "The only solution for the protection of the Jewish state "is to create an enemy near its borders".

Leaks revealed that ISIS leader and cleric Abu Bakr Al Baghdadi took intensive military training for a whole year in the hands of Mossad, besides courses in theology and the art of speech.

5 DANCING ISRAELIS
 5 men were reported filming the 9/11 Twin Towers Attack while at Liberty State Park located in Jersey City, New Jersey. They were spotted jumping for joy, mocking and celebrating the attacks. They would appear on Israeli TV two months after their arrest. Oded Ellner said "Our purpose was to document the event."

A White Chevrolet van with the sign "Urban Moving Systems International" and a graphic of a passenger plane flying into the Twin Towers was spotted with 3 Israelis who were reported celebrating after the initial explosion. The van contained maps of the city, box cutters, $4,700 and multiple passports. Dogs positively detected explosives in the van.
 CIA agents confirmed that "Urban Moving Systems International" is a Mossad front company.

Fox News reported 60 Israelis were arrested for espionage in the month of September and over 140 previously across America since 1990.

Just months before 9/11, the World Trade Center's lease was sold to Larry Silverstein. Larry Silverstein took out an insurance plan that "fortuitously" covered Terrorism. After 9/11 Larry Silverstein took the insurance company to court. Larry Silverstein claimed he should be paid double because there were two attacks. Larry Silverstein won and was awarded $4,550,000,000.

"We are benefiting from one thing, and that is the attacks on the Twin Towers and the Pentagon and the American struggle in Iraq. These events swung American public opinion in our favor."

Israel on multiple occasions have deliberately struck innocent palestinians civilians in this war wall claiming they were trying to strike hamas soldier. One instance of this is when israel stroke down schools, ambulances and hospitals claiming that is was an attack on hamas, "Ashraf al-Qidra, spokesperson for the health ministry in Gaza, said 15 people were killed and 60 wounded when Israel struck an ambulance that was part of a convoy at Gaza's biggest hospital, al-Shifa.

Israel's military said it had identified and hit an ambulance "being used by a Hamas terrorist cell" in the battle zone, and that a number of Hamas fighters were killed.

Hamas official Izzat El Reshiq said allegations its fighters were present were "baseless". The military gave no evidence to support its assertion that the ambulance was linked to Hamas but said in a statement it intended to release additional information."

<https://www.reuters.com/world/middle-east/us-call-israel-implement-humanitarian-pauses-gaza-2023-11-03/>

Another instance of this is them attacking a refugee camp, quote israel says "Deadly strikes on a Palestinian refugee camp have fueled another wave of anger, renewed war crimes accusations and raised questions about the military strategy Israel is using as it prosecutes a war on Hamas that has racked up thousands of civilian deaths.

Israel says the strike this week in the city of Jabaliya, which killed dozens, targeted a command center against Hamas, the Palestinian militant group that raided southern Israel last month, killed more than 1,400 people and took more than 200 hostages." in response hamas had said "Hamas spokesperson Hazem Qassem has denied that any senior commander was present in the refugee camp and deemed the claim an Israeli excuse for killing civilians."

After the UN partition plan Palestinians sparked civil war in Palestine by attacks on Jews, including the infamous attack on a Jewish Bus

1. As per report of British high commissioner to Palestine, Palestinians demonstrations were on UN plan, rather than attack on Jews. It was Jewish recourse to fire arms that sparked it sequence of events in a December 13, 1947 communiqué to London, Sir A Cunningham, the British High Commissioner to Palestine, wrote:

The initial Arab outbreaks were spontaneous and unorganized and were more demonstrations of displeasure at the UN decision than determined attacks on Jews. The weapons initially employed were sticks and stones and had it not been for Jewish recourse to firearms, it is not impossible that the excitement would have subsided and little loss of life been caused. This is more probable since there is reliable evidence that the Arab Higher Committee as a whole and the Mufti in particular, although pleased at the strong response to the strike call, were not in favor of serious outbreaks.<sup>31</sup>

2. Palestinian attack on a Jewish bus on Nov 30, 1947 (aka Fajju Bus attack) was in response to a assassination of a Palestinian family (Shubaki Family assassination) carried out by Jewish militia Lehi on 19th Nov 1947.

According to Zionists, Palestinians who fled their homes during the Nakba can't come back because they were ordered to move by their leaders (which happened according to them; there is no actual proof of this).

Will they apply the same logic to themselves now?

Remember zionist logic: if you fled the war because of fear or if you leave because of your leaders order you to evacuate, you don't have the right to come back when the war ends.

Year of Escalation	Reason of breaking ceasefire/ Spark leading to escalation
ESCALATION OF 2020–21:	Started with Israel's aims of illegal eviction of Palestinians from Shiekh Jarrah Neighborhood of East Jerusalem (a territory Israel annexed illegally). Further escalated because of Israel police use of disproportionate force on Muslims in Al-Aqsa during Ramadan. Lead to Hamas firing rockets in Israel
ESCALATION OF 2014:	On May 15, 2014 Israeli security forces killed two Palestinian teenagers. (aka Beitunia killings ). This led to Hamas operatives killing Three Israeli teenagers, and subsequent breaking of escalation.
ESCALATION OF 2012	On 13 April 2012, Israel fired on a Palestinian boat in Gaza waters, On September 2012 Israeli navy attacked more Palestinian fisherman. Gaza groups retaliated against Israeli attacks by firing rockets at Israel
ESCALATION 2008–09 (OPERATION CAST LEAD)	A four-month ceasefire was brokered between Israel and Hamas on 19 June 2008, ceasefire was first broke by Israel when Israel killed a Palestinian on 23 June . As per UN fact finding mission in Gaza  A/HRC/12/48 page 63  differed substantially. <sup>85</sup> According to information reported by OCHA, the agreement included a commitment by the Gaza authorities to halt attacks by Palestinian armed groups against Israel immediately and a commitment by Israel to cease its military operations in Gaza. Israel also reportedly agreed to ease its blockade of Gaza and gradually lift its ban on the import of a large number of commodities. <sup>86</sup> According to Egyptian sources quoted by the International Crisis Group, <sup>87</sup> after three weeks the two sides were to commence negotiations for a prisoner exchange and the opening of the Rafah crossing.  226. The agreement was made in respect to the territory of the Gaza Strip only, but Egypt reportedly undertook to work to expand the ceasefire to the West Bank after the initial six-month ceasefire had elapsed. <sup>88</sup>  227. The first incident relevant to the ceasefire reportedly took place on 23 June 2008, when a 67-year-old Palestinian civilian was injured when the Israeli military stationed at the border

Regarding hamas's recent missile attacks, please tell me how it's unjust, you can't do ALL THESE attacks (see chapter: Various harm of noncombatant palestinians) and not expect any in return.
